MIDNIGHT MURDER.

Mrs. Gunser Says She Knows Her Husband's Assassin.

HE IS NOT IN CUSTODY.

Continuation of the Coroner's Inquest-Mrs. Gunser's Condition.

The terrible tragedy at East Williamsburg of Sunday night attracts greater attention as the mystery surrounding the affair seems to deepen. The driver, John Gunser, the murdered man, and to was arrested on Monday evening, was from the Fifth precinct station house to the scene of the murder by Sergeant Fielding yesterday morning about half-past elever p'clock, George Griess, the other prisoner, having been released. After a few minutes' private conversation with Coroner Carrol he was taken to the scene of the tragedy and confronted with the corpse of the decessed. It was lying in a large ice box in the northwest corner of the barroom, and sitting and stand-ing around the room were thirty or lorly of the relatives and friends of the deceased, eagerly watching the scene. Schmidt fearlessly and without bianching looked at the corpse, saying, as he did so, "I am sorry for him, but I don't know any-thing about the murder." He then lingered for a ent or two gazing on the corpse, and, turning away, engaged in conversation with a few friends until the Coroner ordered him removed until the inquest in the evening. Adam Martin, the employe of Gunser, who was examined on Monday, and Maria Ebrhardt, his betrothed, who resides close by, were closely interrogated yesterday respecting the domestic relations of the Gunsers, and after some talk, and an admission made by Mrs. Guneer's sister, acknowledged there was some difficulty between decoased and his wife arising from her too great intimacy with William Schmidt. Mrs. Michael, the ife of the barber, with whom the Guusers have had frequent quarrels and two or three lawsuits, who resides in the next house, says that Mrs. Gunser frequently upbraided her husband on his lameness—he had one short leg- and on one occasion, after calling him a "crooked dog," he seized her by the hair and dragged her around the room, kicking her.

Mrs. Gunser gave birth to a child on the 3d inst., and Saturday last was the first time she left her room and was very weak all day Sunday, and her condition. in view of the injuries received at the hands of the assassin, renders her condition very critical, though Dr. Charles J. Stahl, her medical attendant, thinks she will ultimately recover. The Coroner and District Attorney Downing impressed upon him the necessity of a more scarching examination into what she knew of the murder, and, despite his appeal to postpore it for a day or two until she was a little stronger, he was compelled to allow it to take place, and under the pressure of Mr. Downing divulged that which will undoubteely lead to the arrest of the guilty man. The continuation of the inquest followed her statement, and after the evidence was taken William Schmidt was released on his own recognizance to appear and testify when called upon.

The woman, who saw the man by the light of a kersene lamp, though partially dead by the first blow she received in her forchead and by the blood flowing down her face, fully recognized the assassin, who, it is hoped, will soon be in custody. For politic reasons that portion of her statement is kept secret for the present.

MRS. GUNSER'S STATEMENT. thinks she will ultimately recover. The Coroner

MRS. GUNSER'S STATEMENT.

Mrs. Gunser made an additional statement to Disrict Attorney Bowning and Coroner Carroll, in which she said—I saved my head with my right arm. When I woke up olood was running down my tace. I had been hit before I awoke. I saw a man in iront of my bed striking at me. I could not thun recognize him. I got out of bed and chiled to my husband then ran to the kitchen, the man foilwed striking me; not a word was spoken; I think he was trying to kill me; as soon as be heard the hoise up stairs be ran out; I did not try to hold bim; I only wished to save myself; when my husband and not answer my call I thought be was not in the room; when I came back from the kitchen I saw him in the bed bleeding; the man who was discharged by my husband has Lot been here but once since he left; he knew the place thoroughly as he nelped to build it; the man who struck me was large enough for him. She said that the barbor was afraid to go out nights alone, and it was not him; the man who struck me did not speak; once I had hold of the stick that he hit me with; it left coid as it it was root him; the man who struck me did not speak; once I had hold of the stick that he hit me with; it left coid as it it was root him; the man who struck me did not speak; once I had hold of the stick that he hit me with; it left coid as it it was root in the took it out of my hand; Schmidt and Gunser were good friends; a short time since, Gunser got Schmidt into his lodge; the lame man (Andrews) would not be able to do winat was done to me; he was not the man; the cellar door on the streetyms not locked on sunday might; I think the first wound; that I received was in the forehead when my head was under the bedelothing.

which my Bead was under the bedclothing.

The jury were then assembled at sterropolitan Hall and the following testimoly taken, District Attorney Downing, at the request of Goroner Carrol, conducting the examination.

Miss Annie Gebhardt testified:—I live on Forrest avenue; I was at home all day on Sunday; saw Mrx. Guiser on Monday marning. Witness stated her conversation, as aiready published, with Mrs. Guiser in relation to the affray on Sunday night.

Byoin Wesser testified as follows:—Reside on Forrest avenue; have resided there about six months; I was as Guiser's on Sunday; in the afternoon I had a fight with my brother-in-law; he owed me seventy-five cents; we came to blows; I asked him for my money; two men interfered; did not hear Mrs. Guiser say anything; I made no threats against the Guiser's; I was never locked up in my life; I was never at Guiser's about eight o'clock; Andrews at Guiser's about eight o'clock; Andrews at Guiser's about eight o'clock; Andrews and my life; I was there; Mr. and Mrs. Guiser remained in the barroom all the evening; Schmidt and Kearns went down in the car with me when I went home; we left about ten o'clock; three girls, Andrew Martin, the workingman, and Mr. and Mrs. Guiser remained at the house when we left; did not bid them good night; it was schmidt who called from the door for the car to go on; I have never seen mything wrong in Guiser's house, I did not go there by appointment; we were all friendly and left friendly; and left fri nce. Coroner Carroll then adjourned the inquest until two o'clock P. M. on Tuesday next, and Schmidt was discharged on his own recognizance, no testimony ap-pearing to warrant his turther detention.

DRAMATIC AND MUSICAL NOTES.

Two concerts will be given in the hall of St. Peter's Church, Barclay street, on this and to-morrow evening. Both are for the benefit of the Christian Brothers Novitiate and to assist in paying off the debt on their building in Westchester county. The concerts will be given by the pupils of St. Peter's School, and will be ollowed by an address from Rev. M. J. O'Farrett.

A pleasant amateur entertainment was given here last evening for the benefit of the organ and general fund of the Church of the Advent. Members of the Windsor and other dramatic clubs supplied the list of performers, who for the most part acquitted themselves with zeal and credit. Scenes from the "Honeymoon" were represented, and the "Man of Many Friends" was given as a concluding comedy. A recitation and the grave digger's scene from "Hamlet," with four characters represented ventriloquially, were included. A good selection of music was rendered by an orchestra composed of members of the Mozart Musical Union.

"The Princess Royal" is in its second week at the Grand Opera House, and appears to be attracting fair We notice certain little inattentions on the part of the actors that would hardly be tolerated at the Plith Avenue Theatre, and we imagine the patrons of the Grand Opera are entitled to quite as much consideration as those of the Fifth Avenue. For instance, at the performances on Monday night the actors were not ready to "come on" at the proper moment three or four times, making a very annoying huch in the performance. This was notably the case in the last scene, where Coghlan should have rushed to the rescue of John Brougham; Kerner could have appeared award to hand, to rescue the poor Prussian King, with his Hibernian brogue, from the onshught of his traitorous captain.

THIRD DAY OF THE SPRING MEETING OF THE KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION-LIZZIE WHIPS AND

JOE RHODES THE WINNERS.

LEXINGTON, May 15, 1877. LEXINGTON, May 15, 1877.

The weather to-day was showery. It raised during the morning quite heavily, but this did not injure the track in the least; in fact, it was much better than yesterday. The afternoon was delightful between the light showers, and the attendance at the course was quite large. Two races came off, the first being mile beats and the second a dash of two miles and an

In the first race there were five starters, comprising Elemi, Lizzie Whips, Actress, Janet and Annie Luie. Elemi was the favorite against the seld.

A petition signed by leading turfmen here, protest-ing against the passage of the Pool bill, was sent to the Governor of New York to-day.

THE MARYLAND JOCKEY CLUB.

The spring meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club will begin on Tuesday next, will extend through four days, and will include eighteen races, two steeple chases being among the attractions. There is every indication that it will be one of the most brilliapt meetings ever held at Pimileo course. The most cele-brated stables in the country will be represented.

TROTTING AT PHILADELPHIA.

SECOND DAY OF THE SPRING MEETING AT SUF-FOLK PARK.

PHILADELPHIA, May 15, 1877. This was the second day of the first spring trotting meeting, and as the track was in good order and the weather warm and fair, the trotting was all that could be desired. Two events were on the card, the first being for horses that had never beaten three minutes, and the other for horses of the 2:25 class. The first trot was unfinished, three heats only having been trutted. The 2:25 was won in three straight heats by Little Mary. The following are the symmetric form of the control of the co
